

Music has very much been a part of my life from when I was little. Over the years I have had the opportunity to play my Cello in orchestras, string quartets and ensembles.

After completing Musical Theatre training in London, I began my teaching career in the south, before moving up to Yorkshire over 5 years ago.

It is a great privilege to be able to teach, helping students develop their musicality and creative skills. I am very much looking forward to this next chapter teaching with The Music Rooms – Selby.
